

First Congregational United Church of Christ is a faith community blessed with diverse families and a group of high school youth who long for a companion in their journeys of faith. Our faith family spans the generations and values multi-age programming that nurtures those who seek to live out Jesus' command to love God and love neighbor. We are seeking a passionate individual to fill the part-time position of Youth & Family Ministries Coordinator.

The Youth and Family Ministries Coordinator will focus on building relationships with youth through worship, education, and fellowship. (Programming may include youth group or class, camp, denominational events such as NYE and General Synod, or mission trips.) He or she will nurture the faith formation of youth, and seek out ways to minister to and with families with youth and children in the life of the congregation.

The Youth and Family Ministries Coordinator will report directly to the Senior Pastor. He or she will work cooperatively with the Church School Coordinator and the Board of Christian Education to support youth and families as they seek to grow in faith. The Youth and Family Coordinator also will serve as liaison to the First Church Preschool.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Passion and vision for ministering to youth and families
- Theologically-trained
- demonstrated leadership skills
- well-organized
- excellent oral and written communication skills
- conversant with current social media
- relevant work/life experience with youth and families
- Bachelor's degree preferred

The ideal candidate also would have experience in community service and volunteerism.
